

The Yoga Studio RYT 200 Teacher Training March - June 2017

Application Form

Kia Ora,

Thank you for your interest in our RYT-200 Teacher Training program. Making the decision to join our Teacher Training will take you on an exciting journey of self-discovery, self-inquiry and personal transformation.

Why learn with us...

As guides and teachers at Om Yoga Studio and The Yoga Corner we offer a fun, supportive, nurturing environment to learn from. The process gives you a holistic platform from which you can enhance your own and other's lives with both confidence and a deepening awareness of self.

The Teacher Training program has been designed to offer a well-rounded introduction to the practical skills required for teaching as well as an understanding of yogic philosophies and how to integrate these ancient principles when teaching classes.

We offer Teacher Trainees an opportunity to deepen and expand their own practice whilst learning to teach from a place of authenticity and integrity.

We encourage Teacher Trainees to develop their full potential, moving through the process of personal transformation into a deeper place of conscious awareness and alignment with self.

Our Teacher Training will prepare you to teach two styles of yoga including Vinyasa and Yin.

We welcome you to join us on the mat!

Namaste.

About the teachers...

Fiona Liu E-RYT

hotyogauckland@gmail.com

Co-Director/Co-Owner

Om Yoga Studio

The Yoga Corner

Fiona is a senior teacher at The Yoga Corner and Om Yoga Studio and a lead teacher for Om Yoga Studio teacher training programme. She teaches group classes, workshops, private sessions and corporate yoga. Since completing her 200-hour Teacher Training with Hot Yoga New Zealand in 2009, Fiona has furthered her study extensively including trainings with Sarah Powers, Tiffany Cruikshank, Donna Farhi, Noah Maze, Desiree Rumbaugh, Martin Kirk, Bernie Clark and Duncan Peak.

Fiona is very passionate about yoga therapy; helping people to awaken their body and mind through yoga. She is highly capable of working with individuals to offer them the best practice for their body structures and mental states as well as encouraging the discovery of inner calmness and strength.

Sandey Hoskin

sandeyh@gmail.com

Co-Director/Co-Owner

The Yoga Studio

Sandey completed her 200-hour Teacher Training in 2009. She is a senior teacher at The Yoga Corner and Om Yoga Studio (Co-owns). Sandey's strength is in teaching Hatha and Vinyasa flow. Her classes are creative, challenging and inspiring. Sandey has furthered her education and training with Leslie Kaminoff, Mark Stephens, Duncan Peak, Amy Ippoliti, Tiffany Cruikshank, Shiva Rea, Noah Maze and Cameron Shayne.

With a passion for holistic health and well-being Sandey's classes and teachings offer more than just a physical practice. Sandey emphasizes the importance of integrating all aspects of yoga into her classes. She is both caring and intuitive in her approach. Sandey is focused to strong safe structural alignment principles in her teaching along with mindfulness and breath awareness tools and techniques to guide individuals into a deeper awakening of mind-body connection.

Kylie Rook

yogawithkylie@gmail.com

Kylie was born to move and to teach. From the age of 5 she began dancing and by 16 she was teaching Dance. Between dance and yoga she has been teaching for 20+ years – children through to adults, abled bodied and those with neuromuscular conditions or injuries.

Along with this passion to share her knowledge, she has always loved anatomy and physiology and the kinesiology of movement. She started her working life with a Bachelor of Nursing and has since gone on to study with Yoga Medicine after gaining her RYT200.

She is a passionate yogi with a dedicated self practice and a desire to learn more. She believes that the best teachers are the ones that are also forever students. Always enquiring, learning, studying and staying curious. Her teaching comes from a strong anatomical base with the Philosophy of Yoga brought into an everyday context.

She loves to teach and share her passion for Yoga, Anatomy and how to improve your life through a deeper awareness of yourself and your breath.

You will learn...

- The proper alignment, benefits and potential risks of foundational yoga postures in Vinyasa Flow and Yin.
- Principles of anatomy and how they apply to each posture.
- Intelligent sequencing of a yoga class.
- How to observe and see bodies and be able to make basic hands on adjustments.
- The art of using your voice with confidence and authenticity.
- Confidence through practice teaching, giving and receiving feedback from teachers and students.
- An introduction to ancient yoga history and philosophy including the Yoga Sutras.
- An introduction into the subtle body, Ayurveda, meridians, chakras and meditation.
- Sanskrit names of postures and their etymology.
- Ethics of a yoga teacher.
- The business of yoga and what's next.

Personal Practice

Students must have a regular personal practice whilst participating in the training. You are expected to practice either at Om Yoga Studio or The Yoga Corner 3-4 times a week outside the training hours. A mix of all these styles (Vinyasa, Yin, Yin Yang, Hatha Align, and Hot Hatha) is essential to the practice. This will give a well-rounded base for understanding how these styles differ and what to expect when teaching.

Graduation Requirements

In order to graduate and receive a certificate of completion, a student must achieve a 60% pass mark for all study assignments, and 75% for all practical requirements including the final exam. There are no exceptions. Your certificate is recognized by Yoga Alliance®.
